
Kenny Foxx

FCHS Principal (retired)

Kenny Foxx was born in Middletown, Ohio. He earned a BA degree from Georgetown College, Masters in History at GA College, and an MEd and EDS from GA Southern. He and Diane are celebrating 47 years of marriage and have two children, Kelle and Alyson, graduates of FCHS.

Foxx's teaching career began in KY in 1972. From 1974 to 1989, he served as teacher, coach, athletic director and assistant principal in Laurens County. In 1985, he had the opportunity to become principal in Treutlen County. Then came the most rewarding time in his career -- when he was hired as principal at FCHS. He served in this capacity for 17 years.

Mr. Foxx contributed to the Forsyth County community by serving as a deacon, teacher, and choir member at his church. He was also an active member of the Optimist Club.

Mr. Foxx was honored statewide and nationally as Administrator of the Year for his support of the fine arts, but his greatest honor was to see the Bulldog family recognized for outstanding performance in many successful programs during his tenure. It was his ultimate goal to make every member of the Central Family feel just as vital to the successes of FCHS as the next person!

"HAVE A GREAT BULLDOG DAY!"

FCHS is proud to induct Kenny Foxx into the 2019 Class of the Hall of Fame.
