
Steven Paul Slaton

Class of 1989

First FCHS state wrestling champion

Steve Slaton was born in the Sharon community of Forsyth County. He attended Midway and Mashburn Elementary Schools, as well as South Forsyth and Otwell Middle Schools. In 1989, he graduated in the last graduating class of Forsyth County High School.

Steve attended Garner Webb University on a wrestling scholarship for two years, where he was a two time nationals qualifier, and then transferred to Georgia Southern University. He earned a BBA Degree from GSU in Marketing with an emphasis in Logistics and Intermodal Transportation in 1995.

Steve started his career in transportation before moving into the printing industry. In 2003, he started North Georgia Reprographics & Imaging located near downtown Cumming.

At FCHS, Steve was a four year letterman in wrestling and a three year letterman in football. His wrestling accomplishments include being a three- time region champion, and Most Valuable Player for three years. He compiled an 80-9-1 record in his four years at FCHS. In 1989, he became the first ever FCHS State Champion in wrestling by winning the 189 pound weight classification.

Steve married his high school sweetheart, Monica Rudder. They have four beautiful children: Henley, Jordan, Spencer and Jackson.

FCHS is proud to induct Steven Paul Slaton into the 2019 Class of the Hall of Fame.
