

Kelli Giddish

Class of 1998

Actress, Performer and softball champion

Kelli Giddish graduated from FCHS in 1998, winning a state championship in '96 with the Lady Bulldog softball team. She credits Yatesy Harvey for her inspiration to pursue theatre in college and in her career. Kelli was part of a group of drama students who won the State One Act Competition for four years...1995-1998. She took part in the International Thespian Conference and had a leading role in the FCHS performance there in 1998.

Kelli attended the University of Evansville on a Theatre scholarship, participated in summer stock, was nominated for the Irene Ryan Award, performed at The Kennedy Center, and graduated Summa Cum Laude. She has worked on multiple television shows and has been a part of multiple theater performances and volunteers her time to young artists in their own pursuits of film making, writing, and directing. Currently, she lives in New York with her husband Beau Richards and three sons and is in her fifteenth year as a cast member of Law and Order: SVU.

FCHS is proud to induct Kelli Giddish into the 2025 Class of the Hall of Fame.
